

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC DIVISION

Adjudicator – Laurel Howard

Laurel Howard has been teaching violin and viola for thirty years. She has a thriving studio and is also active as a clinician and adjudicator. She also teaches half time for the Seven Oaks School Division in Winnipeg. A former Director of the Division of Preparatory Studies at the University of Manitoba's Desautels Faculty of Music, she coordinated its Suzuki program for many years for Suzuki Music Winnipeg. She has twice taught the upper strings portions of the String Techniques for the U of M Faculty of Music. Laurel has given many master classes and has taught at workshops and camps in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. In addition, she has adjudicated at many festivals and competitions across Manitoba and in western Canada. During 2010, she was conductor of the Youth Strings, one of the three Winnipeg Youth Orchestras.

Laurel holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Saskatchewan, where she won the Copeland Prize for the Most Distinguished Graduate in Fine Arts. She also has a Master's degree in Musicology from the University of Michigan and a Post-Baccalaureate in Education from the University of Manitoba. She has pursued the study of violin and viola pedagogy over many years and loves working with string players of all ages. Laurel played viola with the Saskatoon symphony for ten years and with the Brandon Chamber Players for seven years, and now enjoys freelance playing in Winnipeg.
