

PIANO MUSIC DIVISION

Adjudicator – Loren Hiebert

Loren Hiebert grew up in rural Saskatchewan, Kansas and Manitoba. His early musical influences were hymn-singing and gospel music. His piano teachers have included Glenn Loewen, Donald Henry, Jenny Regehr and Joan Passey. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music and A.R.C.T. diplomas in Piano Performance and Piano Teaching.

Since 1980, Loren has been a music teacher in the Altona/Morden/Winkler area, with a large and active studio. His students have excelled at local festivals and have been awarded numerous scholarships at the provincial level. Loren has adjudicated in music festivals across Manitoba and western Ontario. He is also a member of the International Music Camp piano faculty.

Loren has been the accompanist for numerous individuals and groups, including the Faith and Life Male Choir and Canzona. In addition, he has been active as a chamber musician in various other classical and jazz combinations. Loren has made four recordings with violinist Rosemary Siemens and the acclaimed choral ensemble "Canzona" released a CD of German Hymns in 2011 with Loren at the piano.

Loren and his wife Lori live in Altona.
