Adjudicator – Megan McArton

Megan has shared her love of performance with students of all ages for over 30 years. She is a professional actress, drama teacher, and adjudicator. As an actor she has performed for The Royal Manitoba Theatre Centre, Prairie Theatre Exchange, Manitoba Theatre for Young People and Shakespeare in the Ruins. As a drama teacher she was on full time staff at the Prairie Theatre Exchange School, worked as a drama consultant for Frontier School Division, and runs a week-long residency in drama for the Artists in the Schools Program. She has adjudicated speech arts festivals throughout Manitoba, taught workshops at festivals, and attended the acclaimed National Voice Intensive. Megan takes great pleasure in sharing her enthusiasm for drama, and any skill and knowledge she possesses.

French Adjudicator - Dany Michaud

Dany Michaud was born in a small rural northern community of Quebec. At a young age, he and his family moved to Thunder Bay where he continued his French education at the primary and secondary level. After working for a few years, he decided to return to school where he graduated from Lakehead University's College of Teachers with a Bachelor of Arts. Shortly after graduation, Dany came to Fort Frances and has been teaching here since.

Dany is passionate about his French culture and background and he is always amazed at the work and dedication the students display in learning a second language. He is also aware of the importance of speaking multiple languages in today's cultural diversity. In the past few years, Dany has been involved with the Dramatic Arts at the high school assisting with the annual production of the Fall Plays and Spring Musicals. He enjoys providing students with the guidance necessary and to help them feel comfortable bringing their characters to life.
