ENGLISH DRAMA DIVISION

Adjudicator – Trevor Barker

Trevor has always had a passion for performing. Having won two Rose Bowls himself, he is no stranger to The Rainy River District Festival of the Performing Arts.

After high school, Trevor wanted to continue theatre, so he auditioned for multiple performing companies and landed roles in: Rent, High School Musical, Beauty and the Beast, West Side Story, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Fiddler on the Roof, Spamalot, A Chorus Line, White Christmas, The Buddy Holly Story, and Footloose. Along with his stage experience, he has a few credits in front of the camera, having been in television shows and movies on The Space Channel and CBC.

In more recent years, Trevor taught at performing arts schools in Toronto such as A Sharp School of Music, Neighbour Note Music Lessons, and in the drama department at Camp Tamakwa. He studied improv at Second City and started developing his own works during this time. He went on to compose and music direct Tuck & Daisy (T&D Productions), Alex in Wonderland (Solar Stage Theatre), and Gravenhurst: A Ten Minute Musical (Canadian Musical Theatre Writers Collective).

Trevor is happy to be back adjudicating the drama portion of the festival for his second time!
