Adjudicator – Elizabeth Rotoff

Elizabeth Rotoff has performed across Canada and in England in opera, musical theatre and recital. She has had leading roles in the operas Carmen, The Tales of Hoffman, La Clemenza di Tito, Così fan tutte, Die Fledermaus, Hansel and Gretel, The Medium, Kismet and many more. In Winnipeg, she has performed as a soloist with the Winnipeg Philharmonic Choir and Women of Note and has appeared in roles with the Little Opera Company.

The Edmonton Sun stated that her performance was riveting and that she has a haunting mezzo voice. The Bognor Regis Observer (England) reported, “The range of her powerful voice, coupled with an obvious deep understanding of the poetry made a memorable experience for the appreciative audience.” Opera Today said of her performance in Lennox Berkley’s A Dinner Engagement, “She was brilliantly haughty and convincingly statuesque”.

Her voice students consistently perform well in exams, music festivals and other competitions. Many of her students have gone on to professional careers in the disciplines of classical music, musical theatre and jazz. She is currently on the board of the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) as President and the Manitoba Registered Music Teacher’s Association. She is also an active adjudicator and clinician.

In addition to her love of the arts, Elizabeth has a strong passion for helping singers optimize their instruments for performance in singing as a certified personal trainer and nutrition coach and founder of The Fit Singer. Her expertise as voice teacher and health coach has brought her into collaboration with the Resonanz Opera Singing Artists program in Cleveland, Ohio. She has also been a presenter at NATS at the local and national levels and at the 2019 Canadian Federation of Music Teacher’s Associations National Conference.
